

François Gros

Permanent Secretary Emeritus, French Academy of Sciences

Professor Emeritus Collège de France

PhD Institut Pasteur (1952)- Rockefeller Fellow, Rockefeller Institute, New York, 1954-1955 & Illinois University

Biochemistry Scientist, Institut Pasteur, CNRS, Paris (1947-1963)

Head of Department Biochemistry, Institute of Physico-chemical Biology, Paris, 1963-1968

Professor, Faculté des Sciences, molecular biology, 1968-1973

Professor, college de France, cellular biochemistry, 1973-1996

Professor, Institut Pasteur, 1973

Director, Institut Pasteur, 1976-1981

Advisor to the Prime Minister, 1981-1985

Permanent Secretary, French Academy of Sciences, 1991-2000

Permanent Secretary Emeritus, 2000-present

Associate member of numerous foreign academies (USA, UK, Belgium, Italy, Greece, India, Russia etc...)

Research areas: microbial biochemistry, genetic regulation, 1947-1973. Cellular differentiation: genes for development genes (muscular and neuronal systems)

500 scientific publications

President, Franco-Japanese Advisory Council for Sciences, 1995-present

President, Committee for developing countries, Académie des Sciences (COPED), 1997-present

Commander of the Legion of Honour and the National Order of Merit

Board of Directors, Yves Cotrel Foundation, Institut de France 1999-present